

Registration for ILAS Seminar-E2

ILAS Seminar-E2 : Ethical issues in Health sciences

ILAS Seminar-E2 : Critical thinking and Communication skills

These courses will be offered as ILAS Seminar-E2 in English by Liberal Arts and general education.

Schedule of application for ILAS Seminars -E2 is indicated as follows.

First semester

Students in their first-year of undergraduate have priority for this course. Students in their second year of undergraduate or above can register after first-year students have registered.

Around 17:00, April 7	ILAS Seminar-E2 courses which accept additional registrations at the first class are to be announced at KULASIS. Students in their second year of undergraduate or above may take courses which has a placement and are open to students in their second year or above.
At the first class: April 8 to 14	Please inform the instructor of your name and student number at the first class and obtain permission. By the start of the registration period, the courses you have been approved for will appear on the KULASIS course registration candidate screen.
Class Registration: April 17 to April 20 Class Confirmation and revision: April 23 and April 26	The course appears on the KULASIS course registration candidate screen does not mean the registration procedure is completed. As well as the other Liberal Arts and Sciences Course, you have to finalize the registration during class registration period and class registration confirmation/revision period.

Second semester

Pre-registration (KULASIS): 8:00, September 24 to 24:00, September 29	Only the first choice will be accepted on the ILAS Seminar page of KULASIS for all students. If applicants are over the expected capacity of a course, a random
---	---

	lottery is conducted. For students who are in their second year of undergraduate or above, only courses that accept students in their second year or above will be accepted.
Around 17:00, September 30	The courses you have been approved for will appear on the KULASIS course registration candidate screen. ILAS Seminar-E2 courses which accept additional registrations at the first class are to be announced at KULASIS.
At the first class: October 1 to 7	Courses which has a placement will be accepted at the first class. Please inform the instructor of your name and student number at the first class and obtain permission. By the start of the registration period, the courses you have been approved for will appear on the KULASIS course registration candidate screen.
Class Registration: October 12 and 13 Class Confirmation and revision: October 16 to October 19	The course appears on the KULASIS course registration candidate screen does not mean the registration procedure is completed. As well as the other Liberal Arts and Sciences Course, you have to finalize the registration during class registration period and class registration confirmation/revision period.